

1. PURPOSE:

The purpose of this document is to define the compliance policy for anti-corruption laws for the Company and its directors, officers, employees, agents, distributors, consultants and to identify ways to raise concerns. This supplements the Company's Code of Business Ethics and Smiths' Values.

At Smiths we do business in the Smiths Way. This means always doing business with integrity, which is one of our core values.

Using our values to guide our actions and behaviour is crucial to achieving our ambition. It's also vital to protecting and building our reputation - built up over 160 years.

This Anti-Corruption Policy is here to help you to play your part in securing Smiths' long-term objectives. It outlines what's expected of us and points us in the direction of where to go for help and guidance.

If you see something at work that concerns you or that you feel doesn't align with our values, please speak out. Speaking out can help you deal with a challenge and ensure we always do the right thing for all involved.

Andrew Reynolds Smith
Chief Executive Officer of Smiths Group
